

YOU MAY NEED TO RENEW YOUR MEDICAID EVERY 6 MONTHS

NEW 6-MONTH RENEWAL RULE FOR DC MEDICAID:

Starting January 1, 2027, DC Medicaid is introducing new rules for certain members. You may be required to renew your health coverage every 6 months instead of once a year, and you may need to report your work, school, work program, or volunteer hours, also known as work requirements, to keep your benefits.

WHO MAY BE AFFECTED?

- The Childless Adult Group: If you are an adult age 19 to 64 without a dependent child, you are subject to both the 6-month renewal cycle and the work requirements.
- Work Requirement Exemptions: While you will still be on the shorter 6-month renewal timeline, you can be excused from doing a work activity hours if you have a disability, special health needs, or meet other criteria.

WHAT YOU MAY NEED FOR YOUR RENEWAL

- Completed renewal packet
- Work Rules Screener Form
- Proof of income (pay stubs, pension, etc.)
- School records
- Report all changes (moved, pregnancy, etc)

Your benefits could stop if you miss your 6-month renewal deadline or fail to provide proof of work, school or volunteer hours.
