

MEDICAID WILL COVER FEWER PAST MEDICAL BILLS STARTING IN 2027

Starting January 1, 2027, Medicaid will only cover medical bills from 1 month before you apply if you are a childless adult, or up to 2 months for parents and children.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN FOR YOU?

- If you think you qualify for Medicaid, apply as soon as possible or renew your coverage.
- If you wait too long to apply, or renew your coverage, some older medical bills may not be covered.
- Applying early can help protect you from unexpected medical costs.
